DEDICATION

We, the Class of Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-Six dedicate our volume of the ECHO to Miss Robertson, Mrs. Koenig, and Mr. Heckaman, in appreciation of the unending support and guidance which they have rendered unselfishly throughout our high school years.

Our annual is an expression of the high admiration and deep feeling we hold for our sponsors and the help and understanding given to us will remain dominant factors toward richer lives for us all.

BOARD OF EDUCATION: Mrs. Estella Barrick, Mr. Norman Lamborn, Mr. Warren Clapper, Mr. Lawrence Renner, Mr. James Dewalt, Dr. Joel Davis.

W. B. Goddard
SUPERINTENDENT

TO THE SENIOR CLASS:

The world needs clear-headed men and women, for our thought on many subjects is still vague and indefinite. Majorities rule, but they are often confused in thought and wrong in policy. This acts as a great handicap to the progress of the peoples of the world and loads humanity with heavy burdens—so, to quote Van Dyke, "Think without confusion clearly and love your fellowmen sincerely."

CLASS HISTORY

At last the big day which the eighty-three members of the nineteen hundred and fifty-two Freshman Class had been eagerly awaiting finally arrived. We now entered a new and memorable phase of our lives.

We began our high school career ably assisted by our three sponsors, Mrs. Smith, Mr. Rohrer, and Mr. Schafer. Our class enrollment this year was as follows: Richard Metzger, Don Brunner, Jack Cross, Joe Faur, Willy Eakin, Ramon Fornasiero, Leroy King, Larry Hemphill, George Ledbetter, Richard Nelson, Fred Miller, Dick Rohrbaugh, Larry Morris, Bob Myers, Bob Newhart, Bill West, Glen Royer, John Vincent, William Ramage, Nelda Anderson, Edna Becker, Ruth Brown, Nan Henderson, Ruth Canter, Irene Dobransky, Ann Henderson, Luetta Hardie, Genevieve Hicks, Wilma Howell, Ruth Klotz, Lois Kinsinger, Etta Lawhun, Grace Mark, Marlene Linder, Shirley Maurer, Ruth Ann Crawford, Lucille Miller, Shirley Nordick, Barbara Novosel, Mildred Novosel, Carolyn Shepherd, Carol Ritchey, Carol Rothacher, Nancy Shepherd, Janet Stertzbach, Virginia Stephonic, Vilda Slabaugh, Eileen Westfall, Erleen Westfall, Barbara Carl, Nancy Eakin, Sharon Hoskinson, Patsy Jones, Ruth Marhover, Beverly Morris, Rose Mary Moulin, Betty Rohrer, Doris Thoma, Betty Watkins, Richard Barrick, Bob Clark, Teddy Crank, Thurlow Schwartz, John Doll, David Foltz, Jack Jones, Joe Mucha, Kenny Richards, Joe Mair, Bob Lewis, Gene Maurer, Jack Meiser, Dale Oberly, Richard Oberster, Paul Welsh, Bill Wheatly, Bob Unkefer, Paul Rope, and Jim Zimmerman.

As our class officers we elected: President, Barbara Carl; Vice President, Dale Oberly; Secretary, Patsy Jones; Treasurer, Sharon Hoskinson. Our class project this year was collecting tax stamps.

Twelve months had gone by and then we were Sophomores with Mr. Heckaman and Mr. Monda as our sponsors. Our class enrollment this year was seventy-seven with a loss of Leroy King, William Ramage, Edna Becker, Ruth Brown, Luetta Hardie, Wilma Howell, Genevieve Hicks, Lucille Miller, Shirley Nordick, Vilda Slabaugh, Thurlow Schwartz, Gene Maurer, Betty Watkins, and a gain of Gary Feiock, Marcella McCauslin, Dorothy Williams, Norman Lindemood, Mary Pfleger, Frances Malone, and Charles Blair.

For our class officers this year we chose Dale Oberly, President; Barbara Carl, Vice President; Dick Barrick, Treasurer; and Rose Mary Moulin, Secretary. Our money making projects for the year were collecting tax stamps and selling wool socks.

Our Junior sponsors were Mrs. Koenig and Mr. Heckaman. At our first class meeting Dick Barrick was elected President of our class with Dale Oberly as Vice President, Rose Mary Moulin as Secretary, and Betty Rohrer as Treasurer.

This year we were sorry to lose Teddy Crank, Bob Clark, Larry Hemphill, Bob Lewis, Jack Jones, Larry Norris, Kenny Richards, Bill Wheatly, Irene Dobransky, Patsy Jones, and Ruth Klotz. But we were glad to gain Norman Metzger, Carl Spoon, Sarah Logsdon, Ray Douglas, and Betty Brown.

The big events of the year for us were sponsoring the Junior-Senior Prom which we held at the Shady Hollow Country Club, and the receiving of our class rings.

To increase our class funds we sold magazines, license brackets, bumper seals and candy. We also presented our class play entitled PROFESSOR, HOW COULD YOU?, a three act comedy.

The last and greatest of our school years had begun, for we were now Seniors. Mildred Novosel, Nancy Shepherd, Shirley Maurer, Bob Myers, Ray Douglas, and Gary Feiock had left us this year, but we were happy to gain Mary Pfleger.

We had as our sponsor for the year Miss Robertson. Dick Barrick, President; Charles Blair, Vice President; Rose Mary Moulin, Secretary; and Betty Rohrer, Treasurer; were our class officers. Highlights of the year were the presentation of our class play, JUMPING JEWELS, the publication of the 1956 ECHO, our class trip to Washington, D.C., and the Prom, and as a result of these twelve years, our graduation.

To complete our class treasury, we sold candy, necklaces, Christmas cards, and vanilla.

Baccalaureate and Commencement services were conducted in the high school auditorium May 20 and 24 respectively.

I am sure that each of our hearts grow a little sadder as we realize that the time has come to say good-by to our friends here at ECHS, but we will never forget them or the fine memories which they have helped us to form.

This phase of our life has ended, but we now face a new and greater one.

CLASS WILL

We leave our goals as high as heaven,
To the Class of Nineteen Fifty-Seven.
Never stop for strife or stress,
But march as victors to success.

We leave our happenings caused by fate,
To the Graduating class of fifty-eight.
Work real hard and you will find,
Success and always peace of mind.

We leave to the class of fifty-nine,
All the plans that went just fine.
Since you have just entered E. C. High,
We know you shall never again be shy.

We, the Class of Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-Six, without any thought and very little consideration being of sound mind and of good health, do make, publish, and declare this will to the following juniors:

- I, Nelda Anderson, do bequeath my shorthand worries to Jack Martin.
- I, Dick Barrick, do bequeath my ability to eat any food and not get fat to any girl who thinks she can do it.
- I, William Bates, do bequeath my beat up government book to George Yoho.
- I, Robert Beck, do bequeath my cereal box driver's license to Beverly Clark.
- I, Charles Blair, do bequeath my customized dry cleaning buggy to the art institute.
- I, Richard Blythe, do bequeath my height to the Statue of Liberty.
- I, Jim Brooker, do bequeath my backward personality and all my handsome features to Vern Heim.
- I, Don Brunner, do bequeath my voice to be used by the junior editor of the annual.
- I, Barbara Carl, do bequeath my position of Football Queen to the very luckiest junior girl.
- I, Ruth Canter, do bequeath my bottle of Lite and Bright to Leonard Talbott.
- I, Ruth Ann Crawford, do bequeath the Presidency of Tri-Hi-Y to any girl capable of making up sleep during summer vacation.
- I, Jack Cross, do bequeath my ability to get two birds with one shot to Lucy Moulin.
- I, Virginia Dobransky, do bequeath my light blonde hair to Donnetta Schreffler.
- I, John Doll, do bequeath my odd parts in the class play to Lee Harrington.
- I, Nancy Eakin, do bequeath my cousin to any one who thinks she can handle HIM.
- I, Willie Eakin, do bequeath my cousin to anyone who thinks He can handle HER.
- I, Joe Faur, do bequeath my flat top hair cut to Shirley Jensen.

- I, David Foltz, do bequeath my sweeping eye lashes to be used as a broom to all unfortunate juniors.
- I, Ramon Fornasiero, do bequeath my hot rod Chevie to Jack Rohrbaugh.
- I, Ann Henderson, do bequeath my much used Innway seat to Robert Eaton.
- I, Nan Henderson Swope, do bequeath all my old driving permits back to Mr. Schafer.
- I, Sharon Hoskinson, do bequeath my shorthand worries back to Mrs. Keys.
- I, Lois Kinsinger, do not bequeath anything, everything goes to Bob.
- I, Etta Lawhun, do bequeath my "ducks" to Bert Davis.
- I, George Ledbetter, do bequeath my left over tardy excuses to David Robinson.
- I, Marlene Linder, do bequeath my singing ability to Carol Feiock.
- I, Sarah Logsdon, do bequeath my love for packing apples to Jo Ann Barnes.
- I, Joe Mair, do bequeath my overhauled 1920 model, seven horse power Ford engine to my brother, David.
- I, Frances Malone, do bequeath my dark curls to Carol King.
- I, Ruth Marhover, do bequeath my so-nice-to-be-aroundness to Jo Ann Alloway.
- I, Grace Mark, do bequeath my much used clarinet to Karen Smith.
- I, Marcella McCauslin, do bequeath my ability to act innocent to Kenny Dietrick.
- I, Jack Meiser, do bequeath my left over valve oil for solo cornet to Gary Sagerman.
- I, Norman Metzger, do bequeath my empty muskrat traps to Jerry Volzer.
- I, Dick Metzger, do bequeath my orneriness to Carol Grey.

- I, Beverly Morris, do bequeath my pleasing smile to all the juniors.
- I, Rose Mary Moulin, do bequeath my nicknames to anyone who needs them, (I don't).
- I, Dick Nelson, do bequeath my job to Marvin Dennison.
- I, Bob Newhart, do bequeath my little black book of telephone numbers to the highest bidder.
- I, Barbara Novosel, do bequeath my wonderful personality to Donna Workman.
- I, Dale Oberly, do bequeath my ability to stay awake during Sunday morning services to Don Bardine.
- I, Dick Oberster, do bequeath all my books to the lost and found department.
- I, Mary Pfleger, do bequeath my make up tests to Roger Stith.
- I, Dick Rohrbaugh, do bequeath my nickname Liberace to Bill Moretta.
- I, Betty Rohrer, do bequeath my wonderful experiences at Girls' State to the next lucky junior girl.
- I, Paul Rope, do bequeath my two eyes to all the junior girls.
- I, Carol Rothacher, do bequeath my height and weight to my brother Dean "Humphrey" Rothacher.
- I, Glenn Royer, do bequeath my wise cracks to Bob Thelen.

- I, Carolyn Shepherd, do bequeath my happy-go-lucky attitude to Sylvia Brozic.
- I, Janet Stertzbach, do bequeath my annual staff typing worries to next year's typists.
- I, Virginia Stephonic, do bequeath my ambition to be an airline hostess to Shirley Emerick.
- I, Carol Strait, do bequeath my sister to Don Irwin.
- I, Doris Thoma, do bequeath my twirling baton to anyone who is brave enough to come near it.
- I, Bob Unkefer, do bequeath all my lost, broken, borrowed, or otherwise battered up pencils to anyone who finds them.
- I, John Vincent, do bequeath my curly hair to Jane Watkins.
- I, Bill West, do bequeath my British Walkers to Dick Baker.
- I, Eileen Westfall, do bequeath my brother, Stanley, to Jean Watkins.
- I, Erleen Westfall, do bequeath my typing mistakes to the junior girl who is without a temper.
- I, Dorothy Williams, do bequeath my ability to start my '49 Ford to anyone who feels capable.
- I, Jim Zimmerman, do bequeath my English Bike to Pat Stinchcomb.

In witness whereof, we the class of 1956, have signed and declared this as our last will and testament on this 16th day of February, 1956.

CLASS PROPHECY

STATION E. C. H. O.

8:00 "News of Tomorrow Today"

Detailed reports are given on Mr. PAUL ROPE as the nations secretaries elect him Male Secretary of the Year; the charming Miss DOT WILLIAMS describes her duties as congresswoman in the Senate; and Miss DORIS THOMA, the company manager, gives a review of her latest Broadway hit, "JUMPING JEWELS."

8:30 "Top Athlete"

An intimate interview with BOB (Bongo) BECK, the national football player. Scenes of previous games are to be shown also.

9:00 "Yours for Tomorrow"

The lead in the movie is the handsome Don Juan, JOE FAUR, who does several dance numbers with his leading lady, the lovely Miss EILEEN WEST-FALL.

10:00 "Book Review"

Review of the "I Sponsored the East Canton Senior Class of '56" by Miss ANNA ROBERTSON. The book deals with the experiences (Headaches) of the extracurricular activities of a school teacher.

10:30 "Household Hints & Recipes"

Mrs. CAROL (ROTHACHER) Stinchcomb, hostess of the program to Mrs. CAROL STRAIT, Mrs. LOIS (KINSINGER) Baker, and Mr. GLEN ROYER. The women exchange recipes and chit chat about the children, while Glen assures the single women of America, "The way to a man's heart is through his stomach!"

11:00 "On the Spot News"

BILL WEST, Einstein of the Medical World, graduates from a premedical course at Kent, Ohio, after years of tedious study. The Miss ROSE MARY MOULIN is crowned Miss Personality at Atlantic City, New Jersey.

11:15 "Wee Willy Cartoon"

Comedian WILLY EAKIN entertains the kiddies in his lovable laughable manner.

11:30 "It's a Dog's Life"

This program originates from the "Doggie Shop" of RAMON FORNASIERO where veterinarian, JIM ZIMMERMAN, with his assistant nurse NANCY EAKIN, tells us all about doggies.

12:00 "Record Party"

Disk-Jockey, FRANCES MALONE, spins the latest in pops. The Misses VIRGINIA STEPHONIC, MARLENE LINDER, and ERLEEN WESTFALL, known as the Three Sophisticates will introduce their new disk on the FRANCES Show.

TELEVISION GUIDE

1:00 "Double Danger"

First showing of a movie of thrills and action with BOB UNKEFER as the hard and sinister gang leader and his beautiful blond girl friend, ETTA LAWHUN, and DICK NELSON as the gentle driving instructor who is forced into this ruthless mob.

2:30 "English Racing"

The introduction of the newly designed English sports car Herman, to be introduced by the president of the Brunner Automobile Corp., Mr. DON BRUNNER. We also see JOE MAIR driving the car and trying desperately to break his speed record of last year.

3:00 "Miss Osnaburg"

The program will originate from E. Canton, Ohio, where the crowning of Miss Osnaburg will take place. The winner will receive a movie contract, and a crown of white orchids which will be presented by the noted florist Mr. DAVID FOLTZ. Among the contestants are: Miss Apple Orchard, SARAH LOGSDON, and Miss Cheese, BETTY ROHRER. Judges in the contest are the famous men's sportshirt designer, JIMMY K. BROOKER, and the snappy cameraman, DICK ROHRBAUGH.

3:30 "On the Farm"

"Farmer of the Year," DALE OBERLY, owner of the largest dairy farm in Stark County escorts roving reporter BARBARA CARL, around his farm as she reports on the improved farm conditions.

4:00 "East Canton vs Jackson"

A first for TV, the football game between E. C. and Jackson. Sportswriter, JACK CROSS, says the Hornets are sure to have an astounding victory with a scoring possibility of 72 points!

5:30 "Frontier Town"

The story of a gallant Pioneer woman, JANET STERTZBACH, who with her husband, Bill, conquered the West and its lawlessness.

6:00 "Pappy Metzger"

A rollicking hill-billy comedy with DICK METZGER as Pappy and his Sleepy-Time gal BEVERLY MORRIS, who plays Mammy, as they try their best to marry off their daughters, CAROLYN SHEPHERD, ANN HENDERSON, BARBARA NOVOSEL, and NAN HENDERSON.

6:30 "Capt. Bates Against the Martians"

The exciting adventures of Captain WILLIAM BATES and the lovely space creatures, MARY

PFLEGER, and RUTH MARHOVER as they are forever battling against the monster RICHARD OBERSTER, head Martian.

7:00 "Shakespeare's Macbeth"

A spectacular of William Shakespeare's tragedy produced by the competent Miss GRACE MARK. Appearing as Macbeth is the dignified gentleman, ROBERT NEWHART, Lady Macbeth, the talented RUTH ANN CRAWFORD, and MARCELLA McCauslin as Hecate. Hecate being a form of head witch in the tragedy.

9:00 "Prayer Time"

Preacher DICK BARRICK renews the faith of the people as he comforts them in time of need.

9:30 "E. C. Town Hall"

Mayor CHARLES BLAIR holds a town meeting with the Police Chief NORMAN METZGER, and Town Treasurer, NELDA ANDERSON, as they discuss the plans for building the new airport with engineer JOHN DOLL.

10:00 "Mood Music"

Night Club, owned by RICHARD BLYTHE, who employs VIRGINIA DOBRANSKY to make his commercials more pleasant. JACK MEISER conducts his orchestra. JOHNNY VINCENT, popular new crooner, sings the old favorite, "Moments to Remember at E. C."

11:00 "A Late, Very Old Movie"

A very romantic movie of a barber, GEORGE LEDBETTER, and a model, SHARON HOSKINSON, as they meet on a quiz show.

This has been a presentation of Station E.C.H.O., Channel 56, in the newly erected television tower located in the metropolis of East Canton, Ohio, U.S.A., North America.

Marcella McCauslin

CLASS SONG

We the class of '56
Our work and play we've tried to mix,
We will have these moments to remember.

The quiet walks, the noisy fun,
Were always shared by everyone,
We will have these moments to remember.

Tho' summer turns to winter and the present disappears,
The laughter we were glad to share will echo thru' the years.

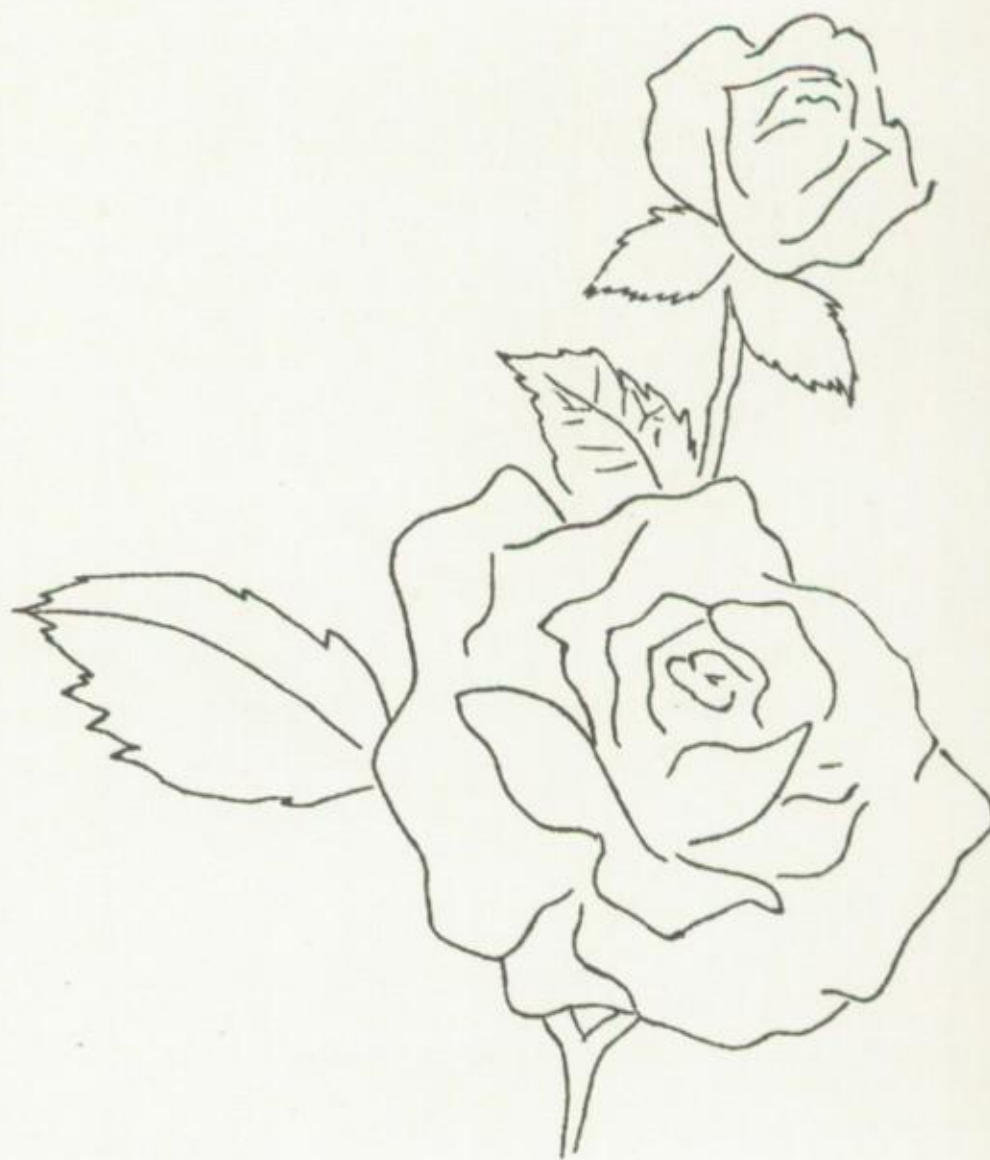

When other nights and other days may find us gone our sep'rate ways,
We will have these moments to remember.

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

PROFESSOR, HOW COULD YOU!

As juniors we presented the play "Professor, How Could You!", on April 23, 1955, under the direction of Mr. Herbert Powell.

The setting of the play was in the home of a handsome bachelor professor in a college town. The plot of the play was centered around the job of finding a wife for the Professor. This led to many humorous and "high-spirited" scenes. At last all the entanglements were unsnarled and everyone found his own "true love."

The cast included Dick Barrick, Ruth Ann Crawford, Dorothy Williams, Richard Nelson, Bob Newhart, Betty Rohrer, Dale Oberly, Marcella McCauslin, John Doll, and Eileen Westfall. Three seventh graders Elain Foster, Eddie Harter, and Jimmy Foltz, were also in the cast.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

JUMPING JEWELS

On November 18 and 19, 1955, we presented our Senior Class Play, a mystery comedy entitled "Jumping Jewels." The play was directed by Mr. Donald Halter.

The theft of a valuable string of pearls from the town's wealthiest family and the sale of a famous painting was the center of the play's action. The element of mystery and the inevitable romantic side of the plot was skillfully combined to make a very enjoyable play.

The cast included Don Brunner, Ruth Ann Crawford, Marcella McCauslin, Jim Brooker, Janet Stertzbach, Barbara Carl, David Foltz, Bill West, Etta Lawhun, Dick Barrick, Betty Rohrer, John Doll, and Paul Rope.

The Hornets compiled a 3-5 record on the gridiron under the coaching of Mr. Kosky and Mr. Tatta. The team played one of their toughest schedules in history and showed a lot of fight and determination in every game.

The line play was led by Dale Oberly, all county tackle for the second straight year, and guard Bob Beck. The big offensive weapon was the quarterbacking of Dick Barrick. Barrick's passes to end Willy Eakin were one of the Hornets top weapons. Next years team will lack the following Seniors: Oberly, Beck, Barrick, Eakin, Cross, Newhart, Faur, and Zimmerman.

BASKETBALL

SEASON PLAY

The Hornets had one of their most successful cage seasons in recent years as they compiled a 12-3 record this year under the excellent coaching of John Tatta. The Hornets using an effective fast break literally ran away from their opponents. The team was led offensively by Dick Barrick and Willy Eakin with 239 and 225 points respectively. Dale Oberly was a top rate defensive man as he did a large share of controlling the backboards. The top "playmakers" were Bob Newhart with Gene and George Yoho.

Willy Eakin, the Hornets outstanding center, was selected to the All County team. Dale Oberly and Dick Barrick were given honorable mention.

The United States Government has a lot of closely-guarded secrets—weapons, strategies, ways to fight communism. But of all of them, there's one that's more jealously guarded than all the rest. And you're the only one who knows what that secret is!

One of your rights as an American is the right to a secret ballot. And you alone know how you mark your ballot. No one sees it, no one can influence you. It's your secret.

In the Red-dominated countries, your vote—if you get one—is about as secret as a brass band playing in a greenhouse. You usually have only one candidate to vote for. A group of sharp-eyed officials checks your ballot to see that you voted the "right" way.

Some people, even in this country, think that that's the way elections should be run. Most Americans don't agree and it's up to every one of us to see that our ballots remain secret. If we let the secret ballot get away from us, we can say goodbye to all our American rights—freedom of speech, freedom of religion, freedom of press and all the others.

How can we preserve these freedoms? By speaking out strongly when we see them endangered. By using our secret ballot every election day to keep America free. Remember, they're your rights, so treat them right.

DO YOU KNOW YOUR RIGHTS?

As Americans, we have the greatest freedom and the highest standard of living in the world. Help keep it that way by knowing your rights and guarding them well. Some of them are:

Freedom of worship

Right to secret ballot

Right to know how your union spends your dues*

Freedom of speech

Freedom of the press

Right to criticize officials

Right to know salaries of your union officers*

Freedom from search without warrant

Right to petition government for redress of grievances

Right to know if your union officers are Communists*

Right to know how your union is run*

Right to speedy and public trial by jury

Right to help of a lawyer

Right to hear your employer's side of disagreements*

Right not to appear as a witness against yourself

Right to refuse to permit the "check-off" of union dues*

Right to go direct to your boss with a grievance*

Right to be presumed innocent until proved guilty

Freedom to own property

Right to work despite union jurisdictional disputes*

Freedom to work in any locality

Right to proper supervision of your union welfare funds*

Freedom to start and manage a business

Freedom to make a profit

Right not to be fired by union leaders*

Right to vote on company's best offer*

*These are rights you enjoy under the Taft-Hartley law.

This is a right enjoyed by members of United Steel Workers, C.I.O. only when the Taft-Hartley law is invoked.
